

CG West welcomes Esquivias as field service technician

Santa Fe Springs, Calif. – Nov. 19, 2024 – Continental Girbau West \(CG West\) recently welcomed Jaime Esquivias as field service technician. He comes to CG West with 17 years of experience as a field service technician in the medical equipment industry.

In his new role, Esquivias juggles a variety of responsibilities, including installing, servicing and repairing Girbau North America laundry equipment; interfacing daily with CG West customers in the vended and on-premise laundry markets; and fielding service calls.

“Jaime’s self-confidence and motivation are impressive,” said Service Manager Ramon Valdonvinos. “He’s entering a new industry, but already has established relationships within the healthcare market that give him a leg up. I’m confident he will continue to grow quickly and further strengthen his role as a valuable member of our team.”

Bilingual in Spanish and English, Esquivias said he looks forward to the challenges of his new position. “I feel like I’m part of the CG West team already,” he said. “My colleagues are sincere and make me feel really welcome.”
